

Preserving Nature In Your Backyard

Call your local wildlife preserve to find out about native and local plant and animal life.

Pick up an identification book from the library, then walk around your property identifying the species you have in your yard.

Make a list of the species you see. You can use the chart below.

Plant or animal name

Notes about what the species likes in their habitat.

